

The Diversity, Equity and Human Rights Committee (DEHR) is responsible for the study and advocacy of diversity, equity and human rights issues within Local 38 with an emphasis on enhancing teacher awareness, capacity, and practice. This work will be completed through the creation of networks of support and the coordination of efforts of provincial and local organizations/associations. Keeping our mandate in mind, LDEC is offering a series of learning opportunities titled Authentic Learning at Tsuut'ina and is pleased to offer:

Tsuut'ina's Teachings: Arts and Crafts
