

What will CALGARY PUBLIC TEACHERS, ATA LOCAL 38 look like in 2030?

Comprised of well-informed, engaged teaching professionals

Characterized by collaborative decision-makers

Members are respectful of colleagues, supportive of professional roles

Viewed as the professional authority on all pedagogical issues

Teachers actively engaged in, and supported by, the community

Members are active advocates for themselves and their schools

Local 38 leadership recognized as educational leaders in the CBE

Members are creative agents of change

Internal & external stakeholder relationships characterized by mutual trust and respect

Continually striving as an organization to create optimal teaching & learning conditions

Collaborating & cooperating with stakeholders to enhance teachers' professional practice

Ensuring members operate in safe & caring work environments

Recognized in the community as a group of highly competent professionals